(Retained)Notification To The Court For Cause As Follows:

In response to the offender's request for early termination, the probation officer recommends the following action for the Court's consideration:

Crystal La Von Mason-Hobbs began her initial term of supervised release in the Northern District of Texas, on August 5, 2016. Her term of supervised release was revoked by Your Honor on August 30, 2018, for new criminal conduct and failing to pay restitution as court ordered.

Ms. Mason-Hobbs began her second term of supervised release in the Northern District of Texas, on July 19, 2019. Her supervision is scheduled to expire on September 18, 2021.

Ms. Mason-Hobbs has maintained a stable residence since the onset of supervision. She has been employed with General Motors, Arlington, Texas, since February 2020.

On April 1, 2020, the Court was notified that Ms. Mason-Hobbs had opened five new credit card accounts from July 2019 to February 2020, without permission from the probation officer, and that she failed to pay restitution at the rate of at least $500 per month. Your Honor concurred with the probation officer's recommendation that no action be taken at that time, as Ms. Mason-Hobbs had been instructed to close all accounts that had been opened since July 2019. Ms. Mason-Hobbs provided documentation of closing all opened accounts, on July 9, 2020. Ms. Mason-Hobbs has paid her restitution at the rate of $500 per month since February 2020. Ms. Mason-Hobbs has reported each month as instructed and complied with all other conditions of supervised release. A recent criminal records check revealed she has had no new criminal arrests since beginning her second term of supervised release.

On May 27, 2021, the U.S. Probation Office received the Government's response opposing Ms. Mason-Hobbs' request for early termination. Based upon Ms. Mason-Hobbs criminal history, her role in the offense of conviction, her criminal conduct during her initial term of supervised release, her noncompliance during her current term of supervised release, and the amount of restitution still owed, the U.S. Probation Office does not support early termination of Ms. Mason-Hobbs' supervised release at this time.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on June 4, 2021
